

JOSEPH STACY MURDOCK Born June 26, 1822, Hamilton, N. Y. Came to Utah in September, 1847. Bishop in Wasatch Stake 1861, Indian War Veteran.

MURDOCK, JOSEPH STACY (son of Joseph Murdeck and Sally Bonny Stacy of Hamilton, Madison county, N. Y.). Born June 26, 1822, Hamilton, N. Y. Came to Utah Sept. 1847.

Married Eunice Sweet June 26, 1842, at Albany, N. Y. (daughter of William and Hanna Sweet of Augusta, N. Y.) (daughter of William and Hanna Sweet of Augusta, N. Y.) She was born Oct. 27, 1818. Family home, Salt Lake City, Married Eliza Clark June 2, 1852, Salt Lake City (daughter of Thomas and Carlotte Clark of Grantsville, ploneers 1850, Orson Pratt company). She was born May 17, 1880. Their children: Sarah Ann, m. Robert Lindsay; John Heber, m. Mary Gallagher; m. Emily A. Bond. Joseph Thomas, m. Margaret Duke; Rocksina, m. Isaac Nathaniel Brown; Charlotte, m. William Wright; George Calvin, m. Louisa Bagley; Ester Mellssa, m. George Lindsay.

Married Jane Sharp June 11, 1854, Salt Lake City (daughter of Nathaniel and Cecilia, Sharp of Clackmannan, Scotind, pioneers 1850). She was born April 13, 1838. Their children: David M. Murdock, m. Margaret S. Tood; Nymphas, died; Willard Milton, m. Christine Watson; William Henry, m. Melissa Baum; Cecilia, d. child; Stanley Gibson, m. Annetta Solon; Margaret Ellen, m. George F. Murray; Sarah Jane, m. Owen Hilton; Royal Stacy, m. Margaret Molton; m. Nelle Duncan, Family home Heber, Utah.

Married Elizabeth Hunter June 11, 1854, Salt Lake City (daughter of Robert and Agnes Hunter of Clackmannan.

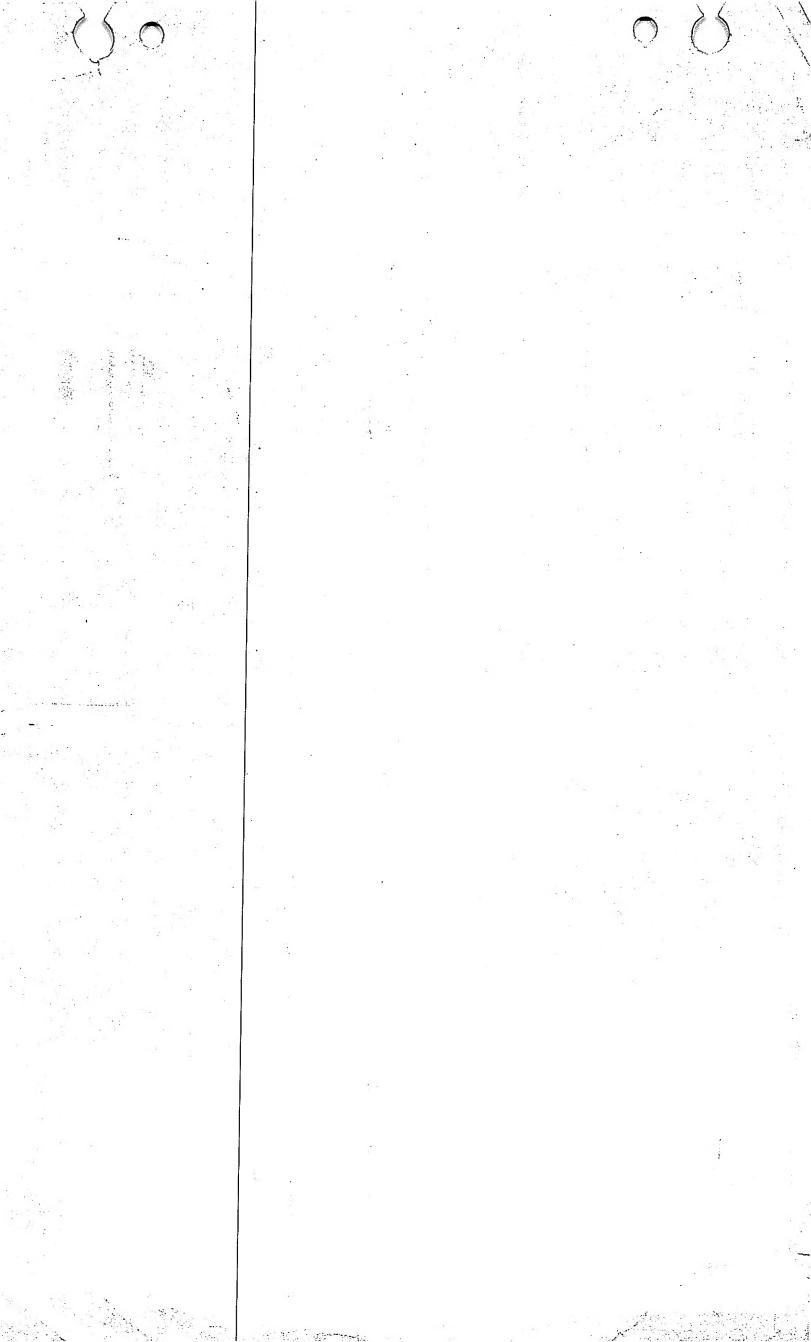

PIONEERS AND PROM

Scotland). She was born April 17, 1839. Their children: Johnathan R., m. Hulda Mary Elm; Alvy M., m. Josephine Nichol; Parley A., m. Lucy R. Hunley; James S., m. Dora Nichol; Alphonso B., m. Phoebe Lee; Annie E., m. Leonard Coleman; Nelson, m. Levina Averette; Clara, m. Alfred Richeus; Joseph G. and Erastus, both died young; Andrew, m. Jane Horner, Family home Heber City, Utah, Salt Lake Married Pernette (Piede Indian) June 28, 1859, Salt Lake City. She was born 1842. Their children: Benjamin, d. infant; Betsy, m. Thomas Blackley; Almy, d. June 1911; Edward T., m. Jenta Murdock; Franklin Judson, m. Stella Edward T., m. Jenta Murdock; Franklin Judson, m. Stella McNaughton.

McNaughton.

Missionary to Carson valley and to the Muddy in Nevada; bishop in Wasatch stake 1861. Member of legislature. Veteran Indian war. Died Feb. 4, 1899, Heber City. 105/peace if we would kill a man in Sanpete County named Sloan. Of course, we could not agree to this, and after more talk, Tabby agreed to take the cattle and make peace as far as he was concerned.

CHIEF TABBY

have made peace with the Mormons. Stop your shouting.' campfire and said 'What's the matter with you Indians? surely intended to kill us. When Tabby heard the noise he went to their gan to shout and yell as they stood around their campfire, and they all seemed to be very much excited. I reported to Captain Wall that they "That evening it was my turn to stand guard and the Indians be-You know I

he could hardly restrain them. go as quickly as possible as he was afraid his Indians might shoot us as "Tabby told us in going home to keep right in the wagon road and anxiety had been heightened when one of the company's horses returned Acomb, had either been killed or wounded to Heber with a bullet wound, and they supposed that the owner, John they found an alarmed and anxious community. Because of the long absence a search party had been organized and was ready to leave. Their When Captain Wall and his company returned home after 12 days, > one horse and wounding John Acomb's horse so that it couldn't be used trees and left the saddles on them, and their guns tied to the saddles. in Strawberry Valley to prepare a meal. They had tied their horses to Heber to cause wonderment and alarm among the people. Wall reported that on the way to the Indian reservation they had stopped One horse tried to roll over and the gun on its saddle discharged, killing The wounded horse was turned loose, and in a few days wandered into However, the wounded horse was easily explained when Captain used to signal. pany of at least 10, one of whom was placed on guard. Drums were were not allowed to go into the canyons to work without being in a com-Provo Valley to a great extent, though some raiding still existed. Men Captain Wall's efforts with Chief Tabby appeased the Indians in ried her, and because of this was favorably known among the Indians. He exerted much influence to stop the Indians from stealing and killing. Wasatch County. He had reared an Indian girl and subsequently mar-Bishop Joseph S. Murdock also aided greatly in keeping peace in also died. parts of the state until 1868 when peace was achieved. At least 70 white that in Wasatch County. However, the war continued strong in other credited with creating much good will, for few raids were made after of the beef, along with flour, bacon and other good things. This event is persons lost their lives in tlhe fighting, and countless numbers of Indians seemed to enjoy the feast and went back to the reservation carrying a part and a big feast prepared in a specially built bowery. All the Indians chiefs to Heber, along with their squaws and papooses. An ox was killed In 1867 Bishop Murdock invited Chief Tabby and some of the lesser strength to the county's largest community. become established in Heber City and decided to stay on, adding their munities began to return to their former homes. However, many had With a peace pact agreed upon, some settlers from outlying com-cultural events were playing a leading role in the lives of the people. civil government was becoming separated from Church leadership, and education had been making new strides in the East and West schools since the beginning; business and industry were beginning to flourish; continuing to give the strength that it had brought to the community By 1868 the city was well on its way to solidarity. The Church was in the five following chapters These significant areas of achievement in Heber City will be traced

WHAT'S IN A NAME ...

CHIEF TABBY

the cattle and make peace as far as he was concerned. we could not agree to this, and after more talk, Tabby agreed to take peace if we would kill a man in Sanpete County named Sloan. Of course, have made peace with the Mormons. Stop your shouting. campfire and said 'What's the matter with you Indians? surely intended to kill us. When Tabby heard the noise he went to their gan to shout and yell as they stood around their campfire, and they all seemed to be very much excited. I reported to Captain Wall that they "That evening it was my turn to stand guard and the Indians be-You know I

he could hardly restrain them." go as quickly as possible as he was afraid his Indians might shoot us as "Tabby told us in going home to keep right in the wagon road and

anxiety had been heightened when one of the company's horses returned Acomb, had either been killed or wounded to Heber with a bullet wound, and they supposed that the owner, John absence a search party had been organized and was ready to leave. Their they found an alarmed and anxious community. Because of the long When Captain Wall and his company returned home after 12 days, > one horse and wounding John Acomb's horse so that it couldn't be used in Strawberry Valley to prepare a meal. They had tied their horses to Heber to cause wonderment and alarm among the people. One horse tried to roll over and the gun on its saddle discharged, killing trees and left the saddles on them, and their guns tied to the saddles. Wall reported that on the way to the Indian reservation they had stopped The wounded horse was turned loose, and in a few days wandered into However, the wounded horse was easily explained when Captain used to signal. were not allowed to go into the canyons to work without being in a company of at least 10, one of whom was placed on guard. Drums were Provo Valley to a great extent, though some raiding still existed. Men Captain Wall's efforts with Chief Tabby appeased the Indians in

He exerted much influence to stop the Indians from stealing and killing. ried her, and because of this was favorably known among the Indians. Wasatch County. He had reared an Indian girl and subsequently mar-Bishop Joseph S. Murdock also aided greatly in keeping peace in also died. credited with creating much good will, for few raids were made after persons lost their lives in tlhe fighting, and countless numbers of Indians parts of the state until 1868 when peace was achieved. At least 70 white that in Wasatch County. However, the war continued strong in other of the beef, along with flour, bacon and other good things. This event is seemed to enjoy the feast and went back to the reservation carrying a part and a big feast prepared in a specially built bowery. All the Indians chiefs to Heber, along with their squaws and papooses. In 1867 Bishop Murdock invited Chief Tabby and some of the lesser An ox was killed strength to the county's largest community. munities began to return to their former homes. However, many had become established in Heber City and decided to stay on, adding their With a peace pact agreed upon, some settlers from outlying com-civil government was becoming separated from Church leadership, and cultural events were playing a leading role in the lives of the people. education had been making new strides in the East and West schools since the beginning; business and industry were beginning to flourish continuing to give the strength that it had brought to the community By 1868 the city was well on its way to solidarity. The Church was in the five following chapters. These significant areas of achievement in Heber City will be traced

